

Rain

Chapter 1 by Fanwizard

Splattering over the windows
Sliding down like tears
Wetting the earth
It's beautiful
As the children gather to dance in the rain
And splash through the muddy puddles
As the puddles are stepped in
The bright umbrella spin
Under the dark, gloomy clouds
As people twirl them around
In their hands
The flowers are opening
Their petals bursting with color
As they sit up straight
Preparing to open
The sky is crying

But it's not from sadness

It's from joy

Chapter 2 by AjeVTV

It's quiet out tonight

The rainfall dampens the noise,
Hushes the evening,
Like a mother soothing a child.
I hear the droplets rattle the rocks
On the gravel;
They patter on the carport roof
And pour out the gutters.
It is the most wonderful thing I've heard
Since moving.
New town; new state.
But at least the rain is just as beautiful
Here
As it is back home.
